

Winners Named at the ‘Oscars’ of the Property World

MIPIM Award winner One Central Park building in Sydney, Australia

Honouring the most outstanding and accomplished development projects around the world, the 2015 MIPIM Awards were announced at the Palais des Festivals in Cannes this week.

Now into its 26th year, hundreds of entries from across the globe were considered with 10 categories including a People’s Choice and Special Jury Award being named.

Australia was represented at the international competition with Architecture firm PTW Architects being awarded for Best Innovative Green Building with the newly completed One Central Park in Sydney.
